

DR. KAMAL BHALLA

Consultant - Internal Medicine

Qualification

MBBS | MD (Internal Medicine)

Overview

Dr. Kamal Bhalla is a highly qualified and experienced doctor who serves as a Consultant in the Internal Medicine Department at Manipal Hospital in Jayanagar, Bangalore. Throughout his 18-year career, he has established himself as an authority in his industry and won various awards and accomplishments. Dr. Kamal Bhalla holds an MBBS degree, which he obtained from Gandhi Medical College in 1997. He further pursued his MD in Internal Medicine from the prestigious University of Delhi in 2001. This extensive educational background has equipped him with comprehensive knowledge and expertise in internal medicine. Dr. Bhalla has earned a certification in diabetes from Boston University in addition to his academic education, demonstrating his dedication to remaining current with developments in his area. He is a committed professional who values lifelong learning and developing new abilities for the good of his patients. Dr. Bhalla's expertise lies in various areas, including diabetes, thyroid and chest disorders, lifestyle disorders, and infectious diseases. His broad experience and expertise enable him to handle complicated problems accurately and empathetically. His articles in regional journals and his participation as an investigator in several international drug trials have made major contributions to the medical community. His research endeavours showcase his dedication to advancing medical knowledge and improving patient care. For the same reason, he is considered one of the best internists in Jayanagar, Bangalore. Fluency in multiple languages, including English, Kannada, Hindi, Telugu, and Tamil, enables Dr. Kamal Bhalla to communicate with patients from diverse backgrounds effectively. This linguistic proficiency facilitates better understanding and ensures patients feel comfortable and well-informed during interactions with him. Dr. Bhalla's professional journey includes working in esteemed institutions and hospitals, honing his skills, and gaining valuable experience. Currently associated with Manipal Hospital, Jayanagar, he delivers exceptional patient care and is known for his compassionate approach. Dr. Bhalla furnishes his patients with many services, including the service of persistent torment, treatment of plantar fasciitis, the executives of touchy gut condition (IBS), assessment and treatment of inborn issues, the board of rheumatic coronary illness, invulnerability treatment, treatment of irresistible sicknesses, immunisation and vaccination, the board of diabetes, the executives of heaps, the executives of skin sensitivities, the executives of skin labels, the board of viral fever, and sans insulin treatment. Dr. Kamal Bhalla participates actively in the Karnataka Medical Council to maintain professional development and keep up with recent medical advances. His commitment to maintaining the highest standards of medical practice is reflected in his professional registrations and affiliations. Dr. Kamal Bhalla practices internal medicine with skill and dedication at Manipal Hospital in Jayanagar, Bangalore. He offers his patients top-notch medical treatment because of his vast training, wealth of experience, and knowledge in various sectors. He is a widely regarded medical expert in his community due to his dedication to lifelong learning and enthusiasm for patient well-being.

Fellowship & Membership

- Publications in National Journals, Investigator in Multiple International Drug Trials.

Field of Expertise

- Diabetes, Thyroid and Chest Disorders, Life Style Disorders and Infectious disorders

Languages Spoken

- English
- Kannada
- Hindi
- Telugu
- Tamil

Awards & Achievements

- 18 Years of Clinical Experience in Esteemed Institutions and Hospitals.
- Certification in Diabetes from Boston University