

DR. RANGANATH S

Consultant- Internal Medicine

Qualification

MBBS | M.D | FIAMS

Overview

Dr. Ranganath S. is a well-known internal medicine consultant in Bangalore who is currently associated with Manipal Hospitals, Old Airport Road, as a consultant-internal medicine specialist. He is a fellow member of the Indian Academy of Medical Specialists (FIAMS) and Karnataka Medical Council and holds an MBBS degree from Jagadguru Jayadeva Murugarajendra Medical College (JJMMC) in 1973. With more than four decades of professional experience, Dr. Ranganath S. is a well-known general physician and clinical cardiologist who has worked in a number of Bangalore institutions, including M. S. Ramaiah Hospital, BEL Hospital, and HAL Hospital. He was a founding member of the Cardiological Society of India, Bangalore Chapter. He has delivered lectures at several national and international conferences and on a variety of platforms. He has won numerous honours for his remarkable contributions to medicine and has written articles on bronchial asthma for the Times of India. He also examines numerous medical diseases and publishes his findings in academic journals. Dr. Ranganath S. has received numerous honours and accomplishments for his commitment to his profession and patients. In 1973, he received registration from the Karnataka Medical Council. Clinical cardiology, diabetes, and infectious disorders are his areas of specialisation. He is the best internist in Malleshwaram, Bangalore. Dr. Ranganath S. is a top general physician and a great contributor to Bengaluru's medical industry. Dr. Ranganath S. has expertise in a wide range of treatments, including piles treatment, skin allergy treatment, viral fever treatment, non-insulin diabetes treatment, skin tag treatment, irritable bowel syndrome (IBS) treatment, filariasis treatment, head and neck infection treatment. Dr. Ranganath S. has earned a solid reputation as a highly skilled and respected general physician. The entire professional career of Dr. Ranganath S. devoted himself to the diagnosis and treatment of various diseases. He is acquainted with the most recent medical studies. He is committed to improving medical care by making important contributions to the field of medicine. He is renowned for his outstanding interpersonal abilities and capacity to make difficult medical ideas simple for patients to comprehend. He takes time to listen to his patients' issues and works closely with them. He will provide a recommendation and provide maximum attention to their patients. He aims to deliver the finest possible care to his patients. He is highly respected and well-liked by his coworkers and patients. He speaks English, Hindi, and Kannada well and readily communicates with their patients and coworkers.

Fellowship & Membership

- Fellow of the Indian Academy of Medical Specialists (FIAMS)

Field of Expertise

- Consultant Physician practising clinical cardiology, diabetes and infective diseases

Languages Spoken

- Kannada
- Hindi
- English

Awards & Achievements

- Attended National and International Conferences and Delivered Lectures on various platforms

Talks & Publications

- On Bronchial Asthma in the Times of India