Overview

Dr. Nitin Yashas Murthy is a highly skilled and successful hemato-oncology and medical oncology consultant. With a broad range of training and experience, he is committed to giving patients with solid and hematolymphoid cancers the best treatment possible. Dr. Murthy supports a multidisciplinary, holistic approach to patient treatment that emphasises the use of evidence-based practices and the most recent developments in the industry. Dr. Murthy completed his MBBS and MD in Internal Medicine from St. John's Medical College in Bangalore. He sought a Doctorate of National Board (DrNB) in Clinical Oncology from Manipal Hospitals, where he received training in various advanced therapeutic options like targeted therapy and immunotherapy. Additionally, he gained proficiency in the management of oncologic emergencies. His specialities include the treatment of solid malignancies such as gastrointestinal tumours and cancers of the breast, lungs, colon, kidney, prostate, and urinary tract. He also has extensive experience treating hematolymphoid cancers such as leukaemia, lymphomas, and myeloma. Dr. Murthy is a significant proponent of cancer screening and early diagnosis, stressing the need to find hereditary cancer syndromes. For the same reason, he is considered the cancer surgeon in Sarjapur Road. Molecular oncology, targeted treatment, personalised medicine, and immunotherapy are Dr. Murthy's areas of speciality. He has delivered papers at major national conferences that have won awards. In 2019, he was honoured to deliver one of the few Indian presentations at the famous European Society of Medical Oncology's Immuno-Oncology conference in Geneva, Switzerland. In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Murthy is actively involved in education and spreading awareness about health-related topics. He serves as a quizmaster and public speaker, engaging with doctors and medical students through platforms like Alterdoctor. He utilises social media to share knowledge and create online videos. He also participates in webinars by esteemed organisations such as the Rotary Club and the Press Bureau of India. Dr. Murthy's dedication to his profession is reflected in his memberships and fellowships. He completed his DrNB in Medical Oncology from Manipal Hospital, where he researched various topics related to cancer treatment. As a senior occupant in the Department of Internal Medicine at St. John's Medical College, he played an active part in educating and preparing students while taking part in patient care and examination in haematology. Throughout his academic journey, Dr. Murthy has received various honours for his research work, including Best Poster Presentation, Best Oral Paper Award, and Top 5 Oral Presentation at prestigious gatherings. He has likewise been highlighted in different news sources, sharing his aptitude on subjects like men's health, cervical malignant growth, and the most recent progressions in cancer treatment. With his extensive knowledge, compassionate approach, and commitment to excellence, Dr. Nitin Yashas Murthy continues to make significant contributions to medical oncology and hemato-oncology, positively impacting the lives of his patients and advancing the fight against cancer.
